A Beautiful Cotillon.

The Jolly Fellows opened the social season for the New Year Friday evening, at Elks' Hall with one of the most brilliant gowns ever witnessed in Paris. The hall was beautifully decorated with streamers of holly and mistletoe extending from the center chandelier to the corners of the room, while facing the entrance were to be seen in large figures, "1908." The reception hall was decorated in pink and white carnations. A large punch bowl, presided over by a bevy of young beauties, was in the hall.

Two elegant prizes were awarded by ballot to the most popular young woman and gentleman. Miss Kate Alexander receiving the honor, a gold belt buckle, which was later awarded to visiting young ladies, Miss Bettie Barrow, of Lexington, winning, while Mr. Withers Davis was the choice of the ladies present and was presented with a handsome gold stick pin with a French jade setting.

The grand march was led in a graceful manner by Mrs. Edith Alexander Bronston and Mr. Withers Davis. The music was by Saxton and contained a number of pretty figures which were artistically carried out. Those present were as follows:

Mrs. Edith Bronston and Mr. Withers Davis, Mr. Amos Turney and Miss Elizabeth Allen, of Millersburg, Miss Lorine Butler and Mr. Howard Wilkerson, of Lexington, Miss Edna Turney and Mr. Charles A. McMillan, Miss Leslie Turney and Mr. Reuben Hutchcraft, Miss Katherine Rice, of Owingsville, and Mr. Douglas Embry, Miss Helen Daugherty and Mr. Frank Daugherty, of Philadelphia, Miss Edith Walters, of Covington, and Mr. Jim Buckner, Miss Elizabeth Embry and Mr. John Wiggins, Miss Helen Frank and Mr. William Taylor, Miss Marguerite Woodford, of Mt. Sterling, and Mr. Lou Taylor, Miss Rachel Wiggins and Mr. White Varden, Miss Kate Alexander and Mr. George Williams Clay, Miss Sallie Lockhart and Mr. Robert Hinton, Miss Elizabeth Brent and Mr. Bruce Davis, of Lexington, Miss Bettie Barrow and Mr. Sam Walton, of Lexington, Miss Florence Lockhart and Mr. John Davis, Miss Edna Earl Hinton and Mr. Clay Sutherland, Miss Mary Fithian Hutchcraft and Mr. Hugh Spurr, of Lexington, Miss Nancy Clay and Mr. John Payne, of Lexington, and Miss Matilda Alexander and Dr. Ben Frank, of New York, Messrs. Carl Wilmoth, Hugh Brent and Joe Mitchell.

The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Swift Champ, Mrs. Jesse Turney, Mrs. Bismarck Frank, and Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Bell.

At the Christian Church.

Sunday, the first Sabbath day of the New Year, was a day of great homecoming to the members and friends of the Christian church. During the past week, Elder Carey E. Morgan, the much beloved pastor, mailed invitations to the members and friends of his congregation to be present on that day, and aid as far as possible to make the first Sabbath in the New Year a great day in the life of his church. His efforts, however, were not unrewarded, for long before the time for the beginning of the services, the large auditorium was filled, as well as the spacious Sunday school room which had been thrown open for the occasion.

Elder Morgan's subject for the morning service was "The Church," a theme very appropriate for the occasion, and which was handled with the same grace and evenness of all the sermons by that worthy expounder of the word of the Almighty. The old songs of the church were sung and from the words of praise bestowed upon the pastor from all sides the day will go down in the history of the church as one that will be long remembered and forever fresh in the minds of all who attended.

At the evening service Elder Morgan delivered an excellent sermon on "The Equipment for the New Year." This, like his other discourses, was soul-stirring and inspiring, and his comparison of the life about to set out on the new year to that of a vessel starting on an ocean voyage, not immune from the treacherous rocks and storms of sin which strew the path, and in the face of which one must battle bravely and sail on until the prow of his ship grates upon the sands of the harbor of righteousness, was beautiful indeed.

Elder Morgan is a man whose every action commands the respect and esteem of not only the members of his congregation but from the members of congregations of other churches, for his untrifling efforts to better the cause of his Master. His efforts so far have been richly rewarded, and should he continue as he has begun we will predict a betterment of the community at large, a blessing itself which would satisfy his unselfish heart.

Powers Jury Fails to Agree.

Unless there is some intervention on the part of Governor Willson, Caleb Powers, charged with being an accessory to the assassination of Governor William Goebel, will have to stand trial for the fifth time. The fourth trial, which has been in progress for the past eight weeks, came to a close Saturday, when the jury in the noted case filed into court at Georgetown and reported that they were hopelessly divided, ten to two, and unable to reach a verdict.

Soon after the jury made its report to the court motion was made by the defense for bail for the prisoner which was strongly opposed by the attorneys for the Commonwealth. Judge Morris overruled the motion of the defense and refused to allow bail and called a fifth trial for Monday the sixth of July.

Immediately after the business of the court in setting the time and making arrangements for a new trial, the attorneys for Powers forwarded a telegram to Gov. Willson, stating that ten of the twelve jurors had declared Powers innocent of the charges against him and that the records in the case would be laid before him in the near future and a plea entered for a pardon.

It has been estimated that this last trial alone has cost the State of Kentucky $50,000. His trial cost the Commonwealth $35,000.

Roosevelt's Jo.

"Young man, I would rather see the famous old State of Kentucky without any representative whatever in the Senatorial halls at Washington than to see her represented by that individual, Beckham," said Gov. J. C. S. Blackburn, of the canal zone, when asked regarding his hope for the future of Democracy in this State if Gov. J. C. W. Beckham is elected States Senator. "Comparisons are always odious," he continued, "but when I think of the difference between that man and the famous men who, since Kentucky statehood was announced in 1792, have been her representatives in that famous legislative body, I have to quit. I never had much to do with that gentleman, but I have all the less use for him."

It is remarkable that the man Kentucky Democracy called "Our Jo" for so many years could utter the above words. He is no longer "Our Jo" he is more like "Roosevelt's Jo." He wept while talking in this strain at Louisville, it is said, and well he should, for it was enough to make any old hypocrite and traitor to Democracy weep. Honored for years by Kentucky Democracy; defeated by an honest vote; appointed by a Republican President to a fat job in a foreign clime; after an absence of a little over a year, returns to his native heath and utters such words as to hamper the election of a Democratic nominee for the United States Senate.

Yes, "Roosevelt Jo," you should weep tears so scalding that it would make furrows down those hardened cheeks of yours as deep as the Panama Canal. Ta-t, traitor to the people who honored you a lifetime.

Storm Subsiding, Nit!

Secretary Cortelyou thinks the financial storm is subsiding, but says he fears that the "panic in legislation" will be worse than the "panic in business." He does not evidently have much faith in Republican Congressmen, and has surely lost hope in Roosevelt luck.

Workers and Lovers.

The Republican "workers" of Indiana at their biennial "love feast" urge the nomination of Fairbanks for President. Beveridge was one of the lovers and set forth the promises of reform if Fairbanks is elected as "tariff reform" "after election," when a tariff commission has gathered facts—amend the railway rate law at points where it is defective—make modern the Sherman law which now shackles honest enterprise. These ardent Republican "workers" seem to overlook the fact that such promises are but a repetition of former ones that have never been redeemed and therefore panic has followed the boasted Republican prosperity. Of course, it cannot be that these patriots are trying to "work" the people for another lease of power.

The Feudists.

The Foraker-Taft feud in Ohio and the New revolt in Indiana against Fairbanks, and the Hughes-Roosevelt war in New York, not to mention plenty of minor trouble, indicates that the G. O. P. can easily be defeated if the Democratic party can be united on a candidate who all Democrats will support.

Republican Calamity and Sanity

The Foraker program in Ohio against Taft has been stated by Senator Dick, "to appeal to the people and business men on the ground that sanity and prosperity are better than unchecked reform and calamity." That proposition, therefore, acknowledges that the Republican Administration has been a failure and has produced calamity and panic. Congress, which includes Dick and Foraker, is also responsible for the fact that tariff protection is not a proof and does not produce prosperity, as much as the President is, for the Republican majority of Congress has refused to revise the tariff which shelters the trusts and has omitted to revise our financial laws to meet new conditions. What is the use, therefore, of the appeal to the people and business men, who are suffering from Republican mismanagement, for they will certainly turn a deaf ear to those who have led them to their present pass, and who have shown little sign of sanity.

A Good Man.

Judge Judson Harmon, of Ohio, is being boomed by his Ohio friends for the Democratic nomination for President. He is one of the most honest and able members of the party, and as the candidate would be able to unite all factions.

Can't Afford to Die.

"The cost of funerals has gone up," says the New York World. Well, as long the people keep the Republican party in power which protects the coffin trust they will have to stand the exactions of that trust and all the other tariff protected trusts.

Mail Service on Interurban Cars.

An effort is being made by the business men of Paris and the contiguous towns to have introduced on the interurban cars reaching these cities a mail service which it is believed would be of material benefit to all of the towns.

A petition is in circulation which will be sent to the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General at Washington and which is as follows:

"We, the undersigned merchants, manufacturers, bankers, representing generally the business community of the cities of Paris, Lexington, Versailles, Georgetown and Frankfort respectfully represent that we believe that the business interests of our respective communities would be materially benefited by having a mail service instituted upon the interurban electric railways connecting our respective cities and would request that you have such investigation made as is usual respecting the necessity of such service."

Fast Birds.

Two carrier pigeons reached Boston Thursday from Minneapolis, a distance of nearly 1,200 miles, one of them bearing a message from Mayor James C. Haynes to Mayor John F. Fitzgerald. The birds were owned by Louis Thiel, of Roxbury, and reached their loft at 9:16 a. m. Thursday, having left Minneapolis on Saturday at noon.

LIVE STOCK AND CROP NOTES

—A good milk cow never gets rolling fat. Her surplus food goes into the milk bucket. As soon as she begins to fatten she will decrease her flow of milk.

—The value of the "flour and grist mill products" of the United States in 1905, as reported by the Bureau of the Census, was $713,033,395; that of "slaughtering and meat packing" products, $913,914,624.

—No matter if given milk regularly, calves need water to drink. They sometimes bawl for it when nobody seems to realize what they want. I've seen well fed calves which drank their gallon of milk twice a day regularly, empty a bucket of pure water between meals. Of course they will not do this when quite young, but after they are three or four months old they require water as much as any animal.

Paris Postoffice Business.

The business transacted during the quarter ending December 31 at the Paris postoffice shows a small increase compared with the same quarter of 1906, as follows: Receipts, quarter ending December 31, 1907, $3,648.34. For the same quarter December 31, 1906, the receipts were $3,629.90, an increase of $18.44. For the six months ending December 31, 1907, the office received 1,676 registered letter and packages and dispatched 1,451. Rural route carriers turned in 93 registered letters and packages, while for the same length of time the city carriers brought in 139. The volume of business handled during the closing quarter of the old year was far ahead of that of 1906, and required additional help and extra hours for the present force.

Kicks Over Traces.

Senator J. B. Foraker says he will not be bound by the conditions of the call for the Republican State convention of Ohio, which is to name a State ticket and select delegates at large to the national convention. Senator Foraker says the conditions for the selection of delegates are illegal and arbitrary.

Paris Architect Wins.

The plans and specifications of Architect E. Stamler, of this city, whose office is in the Trust Building in Lexington, were chosen for the rebuilding of the Female College in Millersburg which was recently destroyed by fire. The building will cost approximately $35,000 and will practically be of fire proof construction, and will be built of pressed brick with stone trimmings. The new structure will contain fifty bed rooms, reception parlors, halls, library, and class rooms.

It will be heated throughout, with both cold and hot water, bath and laundry.

Two Ways of Looking at It.

There is a young artist in Washington who classes himself as of the impressionistic school and who, being somewhat out in drawing, generally makes up for his lack of technique by spreading color recklessly and counting on distance for his effect.

At an amateur exhibition he once hung one of his most extraordinary performances.

"Well," said a friend whom the artist had taken to see the work, "I don't want to flatter you, old chap, but that is far and away the best stuff you have ever done. I congratulate you."

Much pleased, the artist was receiving the compliment with becoming modesty when he chanced again to glance at the picture and turned very red. The committee had hung it upside down.

Hurrying to the head of the committee, he was about to launch into a loud complaint when he was informed of the good news that an hour before the picture had been sold for $61. The original price mark had been $19.—Lippincott's Magazine.

Where the Horse Bit George.

"Now, please show me the spot where the horse bit George Washington," was the astonishing request made by a country visitor of his host, a downtown publisher. The latter had escorted him about and shown him the statehouse, the Liberty bell, Carpenter's hall, old Christ church, the grave of Benjamin Franklin and the site of the house in which Jefferson wrote the Declaration of Independence. The publisher had never heard of the spot where the horse bit the Father of His Country, but, equal to the emergency, he took his guest to Washington square and said that it was in one of the corners of that space (which one he did not know) that the horse did the biting, in commemoration of which event the square was named after the general. The gentleman from Down Yonder somewhere was fully satisfied and has gone home full of good, ready-made history to tell his neighbors. It would be interesting to ascertain the identity of the wag who sprung this one on George Washington.—Philadelphia Record.

When Reynard Goes Hunting.

Those who have tried wild fowl shooting know how difficult a matter it is to approach within range without disturbing the birds. The fox's only weapon is his mouth, and the range is necessarily short, but for Reynard it proves all sufficient. His knowledge of the habits of his victims prompts him to a suitable lurking place among the withered rushes in a clump selected to hide the contour of his form and to match the color of his coat as far as possible. Lurking there, almost wholly immersed in water if need be, he waits his opportunity and seizes it. Well may his cunning be proverbial, for there is no animal or bird on which he preys that can baffle his pursuit. Even the prickly armor of the hedgehog proves an inadequate protection when the fox requires his presence in his lair. His lair! What a lair! It is! The thought of it, the smell of it, savors of a whole army of tragedies.—London Tit-Bits.

Six o'Clock Folk.

How many of our readers know what a "6 o'clock man" is? Miss Spurgeon, one of the lecturers in English at Bedford college, Baker street, has a country cottage and an old "Ralph's mill" in the middle of Westleton heath, Saxmundham. The other day a non-Suffolk lady told her that her gardener's wife had often said, "We are 6 o'clock people," and she had taken it to mean "early risers." But soon after some one said that this lady's husband was "a 6 o'clock gentleman," and as she knew that he didn't get up early she asked what the epithet meant and was told, "Upright, like the hands of the clock are at 6 o'clock." Another use of the word in Suffolk is seen in "living upright"—that is, on independent means.—Westminster Gazette.

Backwardness of the First Families.

While without doubt the courtesy of street car conductors and minor city employees isn't all that it might be, the public is hardly justified in demanding Chesterfields and Brummels on wages of $2 a day. Many years ago an indignant citizen complained to old Mayor Quincy of Boston that the street sweepers were an ungentlemanly lot.

"I know it, I know it," acknowledged the old gentleman sadly. "I've tried to induce the members of the first families of Commonwealth avenue to handle the brooms, but they won't do it."—Woman's Home Companion.

The Harder Labor.

"What did you get the rubber gloves for?" asked her as she passed them around to show how handsome they were. "You have a girl, haven't you? You don't have to wash the dishes."

"No," she answered, "I don't have to wash the dishes, but while she is washing the dishes I oil the floors."—New York Press.

Exceptional Case.

"They couldn't convict that forger. When he was caught he chewed up the forgery and swallowed it."

"Well, it isn't every man who is so willing to eat his words when it's proved he's in the wrong."—Kansas City Times.

Insulted.

Eph—What were de mattah wif say dat druggist? Rufus—Why, she wanted some complexion powder, an' he gib her powdered charcoal.—Illustrated Bits.

—Kiss more than the greatest ever cured.—Scotch Proverb.

It Would Improve It.

A clergyman speaking on charity held that charity which was not graceful and clean was bound to fail, bringing to the donor scorn instead of gratitude.

"Thus," he once said in a Sunday school address, "a rich landlord while making the round of his tenants' cottages collecting rents met a little girl whose beauty much impressed him."

"In the shabby front room of the cottage the landlord talked for a while with the little girl, and as he rose to go an unwonted feeling of kindness warmed his heart."

"Let me see," he said, fishing in his pockets—"let me see if I haven't something to give to this dear little girl."

"And, smiling and chuckling, he went through pocket after pocket. Finally in his hip pocket he found a peppermint drop, a white peppermint drop. He dusted the dust and lint from it and extended it gayly to the little girl."

"Here we are," he cried. "I thought we had something. Here is a nice peppermint drop for you. And now," he ended, "what will you do with it?"

"Wash it," said the little girl gravely.

Beginnings of Baseball.

The history of the American game dates from the first National Association of Baseball in New York in 1858. The first series of important match games was played between picked nines of Brooklyn and New York, at Flushing, in the same year. Nearly 2,000 persons—a large crowd for those days—paid their 50 cents a head to see the contest. The rules of baseball were very crude in those days. The pitcher's position was simply limited to a twelve foot line forty-five feet from the home base, behind which he could take any number of slips he wished. All he was required to do was to pitch the ball as near as possible over the home base. There was no penalty for wild pitching or for refusing to strike at fair balls. I once saw a pitcher deliver sixty balls to a single batsman in one inning before there was a strike. Not until 1870 were there any paraphernalia for defense. Old time catchers' hands were a sight with their cracked joints and bruised palms.—Harry Chadwick in Outing.

French Bulls.

The number of phrases of the class called "bulls" to be found in polite works are not all the product of the Irish brain.

A novel that was crowned by the French academy as possessed of unusual merit contained a sentence of which the following is a translation:

"It was midnight. A man who lay in ambush listened to their conversation, but suddenly a dense, dark cloud passed in front of the moon and prevented him from hearing more."

Another phrase, written in downright seriousness by a master of French criticism, runs something like this:

"It was one of those duels in which one of the blades literally buries itself in the heart of the other."—Minneapolis Journal.

Their Little Surprise.

They were elopers, and the stern parent was supposed to be in pursuit. But he wasn't. On the contrary, a telegram awaited him at the next town. "Is it forgiveness?" asked the agitated youth as he handed it to the angelic one. She read it through and burst into tears. Then the startled youth took it and read it aloud. "Your mother and I offer congratulations. Your hasty action meets with our approval. We can now carry out a plan that we have long contemplated and that was delayed only because we had you with us. In other words, we are about to break up housekeeping and go into a flat."—Argonaut.

Helpless!

A city man had a friend in from a north country farm on a business matter the other day, and they lunched together at a restaurant. The Cork man ate his meal entirely with his knife. When he was near the end he discovered that he had no fork.

"Look here," he said to the city man, "that waiter didn't give me a fork."

"Well, you don't need one," replied the city man seriously.

"The deuce I don't!" came from the farmer. "What am I going to stir my coffee with?"—London Opinion.

A Graceful Withdrawal.

"Do you know who that old man is talking to our hostess?" asked Mrs. Blunderer of the lady sitting beside her.

"That," answered the woman coldly, "is my son."

"Oh," gasped Mrs. Blunderer in confusion, "he's a good deal older than you are, is he not?"—Lippincott's.

Not Improbable.

"I understand in France a fine is imposed when a train is late." "Do you believe they fine the train?" "As to that I can't say. I know they always dock the boats."—St. Louis Republic.

ROLL OF THE DEAD.

Eighty-Eight Persons Interred in the Paris Cemetery During the Year 1907—Names and Ages.

A large number of Bourbon's older citizens passed to their reward during the year 1907, as shown by the report of Superintendent William Smith, of the Paris Cemetery Company.

During the year just ended eighty-eight burials—permits were granted which included a number of former citizens of the county, residing in other states at the time of their death. Among the list were: Judge R. W. Hatcher, of Galata, Colorado; Chas. W. Garrett, of Cincinnati; Dr. Kirtley Jameson, of Chicago, and Oscar Billingsley, Washington, D. C.

Other prominent citizens who died during the year were: Dr. Robert T. Wood, Mayor Ben Perry, Frank R. Armstrong, S. E. Tipton, John W. Holaday, John B. Kennedy and Amanda B. Clay, the last four being past eighty years of age.

A number of brave and gallant Confederate soldiers answered the last roll call, and now sleep beneath the shadow of the Confederate memorial monument, as follows: John Moreland, Thos. Cummins, Capt. E. F. Spears, Charles Penn, A. S. Stout, and James H. Batterton.

While the number of deaths increased 21 over 1906, which is the normal increase as compared to population, the ages demonstrate the splendid health of the community.

Of the total of 88 dead the ages of five could not be obtained, the remainder showed the following: Between the ages of 1 to 5, 5; 5 to 10, 3; 10 to 20, none; 20 to 30, 6; 30 to 40, 6; 40 to 50, 5; 50 to 60, 12; 60 to 70, 21; 70 to 80, 12; 80 to 90, 7, and 90 to 100, 1.

Fifty-three of the total number reached the age of fifty years, 41 passed the allotted span of three score years, while eight of the number were octogenarians.

The following is a list of those who died and were buried, with their age at death:

Clara Dawson 31, R. T. Wood 54, Elijah Mann 74, George B. Davis 34, William Scott 45, Peter Eiler 70, Mack Smith 23, A. S. Stout 67, R. W. Gov. Willson is Mad.

Gov. Willson's fighting blood is up. It is said that the sorrow and regret which was depicted on every line of his countenance Friday morning when he was informed of the "night riders" attack on Russellville the night before, have given place to an expression of stern and unyielding determination to punish the criminals if it takes the entire power of the Governor and the Commonwealth to bring it about. The smile has disappeared from the Governor's jolly face and "Mr. Night Rider" had better look out "or the goblins will get 'im."

Hobson's Plan Denounced.

By a unanimous rising vote the Frank Cheatham Bivouac of Confederate Veterans at Nashville, Tenn., passed a resolution Friday night condemning the proposed Federal pensioning of needy Confederate soldiers. In the discussion of the resolution there were many expressions of hot condemnation of the plan proposed by Congressman Richard P. Hobson, of Alabama.

The Secretary was instructed to request Congressman Gaines to do all in his power to defeat the passage of the proposed measure. Many of the states that formerly composed the Confederacy now make generous appropriations from their Treasuries for the pensioning of worthy and needy Confederate veterans, and it is the strong sentiment of Frank Cheatham Bivouac that they should continue to do so, and that the bounty of the Federal Government should not be accepted.

Railway Y. M. C. A.'s.

There are now in America 231 Railroad Y. M. C. A. Associations, with a total membership of 87,860. The total amount paid out for current expenses last year was $930,573. This organization is undoubtedly the most effective agency for good to be found today among railroad employees, and has clearly demonstrated the fact that railroad men are susceptible to the influence in a sane sympathetic and manly way.

If there is one thing that Paris sorely needs it is a railroad Y. M. C. A. Why does not the great L. & N. enter this city make an effort to establish an institution of this kind here?

IT'S ALWAYS BAD.

The Best of Backs Are Bad When They Ache and Paris People Know It.

A bad back is always bad. Bad at night when bedtime comes, Just as bad in the morning. Ever try Doan's Kidney Pills for it? Know they cure backache—cure every kidney ill?

If you don't some Paris people do. Read a case of it:

Mrs. J. T. Martin, living on Pleasant street, Paris, Ky., says: "I was seriously injured a few years ago as the result of a fall. Across the small of my back was rendered very weak and lame and my kidneys became affected. The pains I suffered through my kidneys were most distressing and alarming. I doctored with many different medicines but did not receive any marked benefit until using Doan's Kidney Pills which I procured at J. A. Wilson's drug store. They have been of great benefit to me, and my general condition is greatly improved. Doan's Kidney Pills are certainly an excellent kidney remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Went Into Effect Wednesday.

The Georgia State prohibition law went into effect Wednesday and all saloons have prepared to close. The liquor interests filed suit in the Federal Court, hoping to have the law declared unconstitutional, but made no application for a temporary injunction. In Birmingham, Ala., the saloons will be closed today and the owners sold out their stock for anything they could get. One year from today Alabama's he thinks it would be between $3,500,000 and $4,000,000.

There has been an immense increase in the amount disbursed during the past year owing to the large number let in under the act of February 6th, 1907, allowing pensions for age to all who served sixty days in the war with Mexico and ninety days in the Civil War.

Cures Blood, Skin Diseases, Cancer—Greatest Blood Purifier

If your blood is impure, thin, diseased, hot or full of humors, if you have blood poison, cancer, carbuncles, eating sores, scrofula, eczema, itching, risings, and bumps, scabby pimply skin, bone pains, catarrh, rheumatism, or any blood or skin disease, take Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) Soon all sores heal, aches and pains stop and the blood is made pure and rich. Druggists or by express $1 per large bottle. Sample free by writing Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga. B. B. B. is especially advised for chronic, deep-seated cases, as it cures after all else fails. 26Feb-08

He Was Wise.

A farmer living in Miami county, Indiana, found a gang of men putting up telephone poles through his best field. He ordered the men out but they would not go, showing him a legal document which they claimed gave them authority to build the line wherever they pleased. The old man looked at the paper, thought it was lawful, and walked silently away. He went to the barn and turned a savage red bull into the field. The bull made for the men and they fled at top speed, while the farmer shouted after them: "Show him your paper! Show him your paper!" This story would seem to prove that sometimes it is an advantage not to know how to read. Though the bull's education had been neglected, he did his work effectively, and it is hardly likely that the telephone people will proceed against him for assault and battery with intent.

French Must Pay.

Gov. Willson late Tuesday afternoon refused to extend executive clemency to B. Fult French for the Commonwealth's part of the $5,000 fine imposed upon him by a Clark county jury for contempt of court in spitting away witnesses during the trial of the Marcum-Harigs damage suit, in which he was a defendant three years ago.

This was the last day of grace, as the bondsmen for French have agreed to pay the fine the first of the year, but it was learned that the officials of the Clark Circuit Court, including the prosecuting attorney, had agreed to hold up the payment several days longer with a view of getting Gov. Willson to reopen the case and more fully consider it.

Simple Home Remedy.

Get from any prescription pharmacy the following: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Shake well in a bottle and take a teaspoonful dose after each meal and at bedtime.

The above is considered by an eminent authority, who writes in a New York daily paper, as the finest prescription ever written to relieve Backache, Kidney Trouble, Weak Bladder and all forms of Urinary difficulties. This mixture acts promptly on the eliminative tissues of the kidneys, enabling them to filter and strain the uric acid and other waste matter from the blood which causes Rheumatism. Some persons may not feel inclined to place much confidence in this simple mixture, yet those who have tried it say the results are simply surprising, the relief being effected without the slightest injury to the stomach or other organs.

Mix some and give it a trial. It certainly comes highly recommended. It is the prescription of an eminent authority, whose entire reputation, it is said, was established by it.

A druggist here at home when asked stated that he could either supply the ingredients or mix the prescription for our readers, also recommends it as harmless.

Don't miss the Carpet Opportunity.

Do you like pretty things? Then you will want to see the handsome outlay of fine carpets, rugs and draperies, that has never before been shown in this city—and the like of which is seldom met with outside of the Metropolitan centers. Mere words cannot give an adequate idea of the beauty of this array.

There are rich creations in Oriental and floral designs, dainty subdued effects in duo-tones, and vivid patterns in light cherry colors. You can have no idea of the variety, good taste, and attractiveness of this assortment until you have seen it.

And you will be surprised to learn of the comparatively small cost of even the best offerings.

James Ferguson Moves to Lexington.

Mr. James W. Ferguson, who was a member of the late firm of Ferguson, Webber & Whaley, liveymen, will on February 1st move to Lexington, where he and Mrs. Ferguson have secured rooms on North Limestone street. Mr. Ferguson will still claim Paris for his home, and only makes this move to be in touch with his stable of thoroughbreds quartered at the stables of the Kentucky Racing Association at Lexington.

Mr. Ferguson has a number of already tried and winning horses and has added to these a number of promising two-year-olds of the very best blue blood. He has secured the services of Mr. Shack Williams, a well-known trainer who has developed many winners of the turf.

Mr. Ferguson's many friends in Paris will watch his formidable stable with much interest, and when one of them is on the board the Paris contingent will always be found "pulling" for him. Luck to you.

Growers Will Call on Duke.

The Executive Committee of the Burley Tobacco Society, and the representatives of the American Tobacco Company, in session at the office of Gov. Willson at Frankfort Saturday, failed to agree on the price to be paid for tobacco now in the pool, and upon suggestion of Gov. Willson, a conference between a committee from the Society and the President and Board of Directors of the American will be arranged. Mr. R. K. Smith, representing the American, will ask his company to set a date on which to receive the committee. It will be remembered that on Friday at Winchester, the committee of the Burley Tobacco Society refused an offer of twelve cent a pound for ten million pounds, from the American Tobacco Company. There is sixty million pounds in the pool and the offer of this mammoth trust is said to have been but a scheme to trap the growers.

Ten Booked to Be Hanged.

Unless Governor Patterson intervenes ten criminals will go to the gallows in Tennessee during the present months to expiate their crimes. For two days relatives and friends of the doomed men have besieged the executive office at the Tennessee State Capitol asking for reprieves and commutations, but so far none has been granted. Among the condemned is Ed. Turner, of Kentucky, who cut his wife's throat near Chattanooga.

Want Change in Time of Holding Circuit Courts.

Representatives from Bourbon, Scott, Franklin and Woodford county bars met Saturday at Georgetown to make arrangements for a change in the time of holding terms of court, as Franklin county attorneys claimed that they did not have sufficient time to get through with their dockets. Judge Denis Dundon, Neville C. Fisher and C. A. McMillan represented the Paris bar. The following committee was appointed to frame a bill to be presented before the Legislature to change the dates of the Circuit Court terms in the Fourteenth Judicial district, composed of Scott, Woodford, Bourbon and Franklin: Judge Robert L. Stout, of Woodford, chairman; Field McLeod, Woodford; B. M. Lee, Scott; Judge Denis Dundon, Bourbon, and Judge Ben Williams, Franklin.

Examinations.

Examinations of graduates from the common schools of the county will be held in the office of Superintendent F. L. McChesney in the court house on Friday and Saturday, Jan. 24 and 25.

Announcement

I wish to announce my annual January White Sale, beginning Saturday, Jan. 11th and continuing until Saturday, Jan. 25th.

HARRY SIMON.

Tobacco Sales.

Two hundred thousand pounds of tobacco sold yesterday at Shelburne & Son's warehouse at Lexington from 5 to 18 cents. At the Growers No. 2, 40,000 pounds, at 7 to 10 cents.

Court Day.

A medium crowd in town yesterday and little doing in the trading line. There were 100 cattle on the market at M. J. Murphy's pens, and all sold at from 3 1-2 to 4 cents. Thirty mules on the market and no sales of any consequence. Few plug horses sold.

Double Header.

A double header passenger train, composed of five Pullman cars and five baggage cars, passed through Paris about 10 o'clock Sunday bound for Knoxville. It was carrying the Ben Hur Company from Cincinnati to the above named city and made a record run.

Elect Old Officers.

The Burley Tobacco Warehouse Co. held a meeting yesterday and reelected John LaRue President; Thos. Henry Clay, Jr., Vice President and John Collins, Secretary and Treasurer. All of the old Board of Directors were re-elected.

New Magistrate.

It is now Squire John G. Redmon, of North Middletown, as on Friday, Gov. Willson mailed him his appointment as magistrate in his magisterial district in place of Squire L. C. Anderson resigned. Mr. Redmon is an uncompromising Democrat, but at the same time was endorsed by several influential Republicans for the place. He will make an excellent officer.

Arrested on Serious Charge.

John Brooks, wanted at Winchester under indictment for seduction, was arrested near North Middletown, this county, under a bench warrant which issued from the Clark Circuit Court Friday. The arrest was made by deputy Sheriff W. F. Talbott, of this city and John Bedford, of Winchester, the latter leaving with his prisoner for Winchester on the 10:30 P. M. train Friday night.

Attention, Ladies!

Attend Harry Simon's White Sale.

Will Take Needed Rest.

Rev. Dr. Rutherford, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, under the advice and directions of his physicians, to secure a much needed rest, will temporarily suspend his pulpit labors. The many friends of this much beloved pastor and citizen truly hope that it may be only a short time before he may resume his labors. His pulpit will be filled regularly during the time, due notice being given through the press.

Coroner Rudolph Davis.

The vacancy existing in the office of Coroner by the resignation a few days ago of Dr. Wm. Kenney, was filled Friday by Judge Denis Dundon appointing Mr. Rudolph Davis, one of our most worthy young Democrats. It is Mr. Davis' first office and we predict that he will make an admirable officer. His appointment, which is for an unexpired term, will hold till January 1, 1909, his successor being elected at the coming November election.

Attention, Ladies!

Miss Rogers' Narrow Escape.

A special in Sunday's Courier-Journal from Washington City says: "Miss Elizabeth Rogers, the sixteen year-old daughter of Mr. Richard Reid Rogers, formerly of Mt. Sterling, general counsel of the Isthmian Canal Commission, had a narrow escape this week from serious injury in falling from her horse while riding in Rock Creek Park with her father and others."

Mr. Rogers is the son of the late Benjamin Rogers, of Bourbon.

Slippery Negro.

Late Saturday evening Jailer Geo. W. Judy received a telephone message from the Paris Milling Co. that William Leer, the negro who escaped jail Thursday, had just been run away from the mill where he was detected in an effort to steal some flour. Mr. Judy went hurriedly to the covered bridge near the jail, where he spied Leer, who quickly ran to the other side of the bridge and got in front of a white man. Mr. Judy cried to the man to get out of the way but before he could fire, the negro had a good lead on him and escaped. He fired three shots at his fleeing form.

YOU Know whether or not your eyes are troubling you. You know that putting off wearing glasses will not cure the trouble. If you are wearing glasses, you know whether or not they suit you, and the putting off of having them changed does not help the eyes to become better, but rather worse. Then why delay? Come immediately and have your eyes examined by one who understands how to do it correctly.

Prisoners Worked With Profit.

In the report of the Board of Prison Commissioners which will be filed with the Legislature this week, it will be shown that the profits made by the penitentiaries of the state this year amount of $50,707.89, the greatest since the institutions were established more than a hundred and nine years ago. The profit made by the Frankfort penitentiary, which is the main institution, amounts to $50,234.56. Until the administration of the present Board of Prison Commissioners the earnings did not amount to more than $5,000 or $6,000. Improvements costing more than $45,000 have been made at the Frankfort Penitentiary, which adds to the excellent showing of the present board.

The Legislature will be asked for perhaps the smallest appropriation requested in the past hundred years, for not more than $15,000 or $20,000 will be asked, and it is likely that if the appropriation is granted there will not have to be another appropriation in the next ten years and instead of the penitentiaries being a charge on the state they will become paying institutions.

Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliancy vanish like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate woman's organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form will witness to the fact in renewed comeliness. Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. Made wholly of those native, American, medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

For nursing mothers, or for those broken-down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve tonic adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments.

Dr. Pierce may be consulted by letter free of charge. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

THEATRICAL.

"CHECKERS."

"Checkers", the rattling character comedy which will be seen at the Paris Grand on Thursday, January 9th, is known in the theatrical profession as one of the luckiest plays on the boards. Last season, snow storms and floods and train wrecks played havoc with more than one company, but "Checkers" playing over a route which leads from St. Paul and Minneapolis to the Pacific, to Texas and New Orleans and back to New York did not miss a single performance. In one Texas town the record was nearly broken, and the train and company came in on was so late that it looked for a time as if there would be no performance. The audience, however, refused to be dismissed, and had the unique pleasure of seeing the play's scenery brought into the theatre and set up with a raised curtain. On every other night of the route the curtain rose precisely on time. Few other companies have had so fortunate a record, and still fewer other companies have retained for so many years an almost unchanged list.

Stephanie Longfellow as "Petr" in "Checkers."

Many of the actors in the "Checkers" company have played the same roles since the play was first produced five years ago. Hans Robert, who plays the title roles, is in only his third season with the company, but David Braham, the inimitable "Push" Miller, has been with the organization since the first performance. So have Clare Armstrong, George Merritt and Joe Wilkes, while Howard Smith has not only been with Checkers since the beginning, but has never missed a single performance. Lydia Dickson has her old part of Cynthia, and Pauline Eberhard is Aunt Deb again. The three new-comers are Stephanie Longfellow, who plays Petr; George Seybold, who has the role of Arthur Kendall, and George B. Miller who comes to play Judge Martin after appearing six hundred times as Col. Moberly in "Alabama."

Bits of News.

The Taft forces win first round in Ohio by calling State Primaries for February 11th.

Count Boni de Castellane and his cousin, the Prince de Sagau, had a fight at a Paris funeral and both tumbled into the gutter.

At Atlanta, Federal Judge Newman refused to issue an injunction against the enforcement of the Georgia prohibition law.

Herman Richard Crenshaw, a young farmer of Trigg county, was arrested at Hopkinsville on the charge of being a member of the mob which raided Hopkinsville on the morning of December 7th.

The statue of Robert Edmond Lee, Commander-in-Chief of the Confederate Army, is to be the next to adorn Statuary Hall in the Capitol at Washington. General J. Warren Keifer, a veteran of the Union cause, will have the honor of making the speech of acceptance.

Why Jimmy Didn't Sit Down.

The woman who had shopped until the closing gong had stood at the transfer station and awaited the suburban trolley.

"What," she wearily asked herself,
"does it profit a woman if she gain the elusive bargain and loses every trace of physical freshness?"

Presently the car came along. It had the usual crowd of humanity, and the woman resignedly prepared to stand, when a grimy youth arose and tendered her his place. Protesting faintly, she sank into it guiltily and registered a vow never to shop overtime again.

In due time several seats were vacated, and the woman looked hopefully toward her knight.

"Jimmy," a friend of his was saying,
"there's room inside now. Why don't you sit down?"

And the last drop of discomfort was added to the woman's cup of humiliation when Jimmy responded:

"Aw, what's the use! No sooner I'll get me legs stretched when another tired old hen will get on and I'll have to hop up!"—New York Times.

Capping Verses.

On going into the rooms of one of his friends who was absent Dr. Mansel saw on the table the opening lines of a poem in the following lofty style:

The sun's perpendicular heat
Illumined the depths of the sea.

Taking up a pen, he completed the stanza in the following witty way:

The fishes, beginning to sweat,
Cried, "Hang it, how hot we shall be!"

Dr. Watson, regius professor of divinity, had at one time been tutor of Trinity, and when he was made bishop of Llandaff an honest publican in Cambridge, who kept an inn called the Bishop Blaise, out of respect to Dr.
Watson changed his sign and replaced the head of Bishop Blaise by that of Bishop Watson. This transfer drew from Mansel, who probably had some grudge against the late tutor, the following epigram:

Two of a trade can never agree—
No proverb ever was juster.
They've taken down Blaise, you see,
And put up Bishop Bluster.

—London Chronicle.

What Is Patriotism?

What is patriotism? Is it a narrow affection for the spot where a man was born? Are the very clouds where we tread entitled to this ardent preference because they are greener? No.
Sir. This is not the character of the virtue, and it soars higher for its object. It is an extended self love, mingling with all the enjoyments of life and twisting itself with the minutest filaments of the heart. It is thus we obey the laws of society, because they are the laws of virtue. In their authority we see not the array of force and terror, but the venerable image of our country's honor. Every good citizen makes that honor his own and cherishes it not only as precious, but as sacred. He is willing to risk his life in its defense and is conscious that he gains protection while he gives it.—
Fisher Ames.

Tears and Joy.

Under the title "Tears of Joy"
George Friederich writes to a Berlin paper that the custom of "weeping and howling on all occasions of great joy was general among the early inhabitants of America" and that in many tribes visited by him in South America the approved form of welcome was still to weep. "Tears of welcome," he says, are also shed by the natives of the Caribbean islands and by the Sioux, Algonquins and other North American Indians. From all that I have seen, I judge that in times past tears and joy were inseparable and that the emotion which civilized people now display at parting was once the expression of hearty welcome."

Made It Complete.

When Lablache, the famous operatic singer, was presented to Queen Victoria her majesty, who had heard of the artist's hobby, asked if it was true that he had a large collection of snuff-boxes. He replied that it was correct.
He had one for every day in the year
—365.

"Nevertheless, your collection is not quite complete," was the queen's response. "Here is another for leap year!"—Pearson's Weekly.

The Misjudged Turk.

The rural Turk at home, when not goaded into violence by his corrupt rulers, is the very antipodes of the monster of popular imagination in England. His domestic virtues are at least equal to those of any western population. He is honest, industrious, patient, gentle and of fine natural manners.—London Times.

Just a Hint.

Chapleigh—I say, dwuggist, can you —aw—give me something to—aw—brighten me up, doncher know? Druggist—You're in the wrong place, young man. This is a drug store, not a night school.—Chicago News.

One Advantage.

"What do you think of this idea of having dogs for caddies?" asked the old golfer.
"It's a good idea," replied the beginner. "The dogs can't laugh at you!"— London Standard.

An Old Timer.

"I guess that Tom over there is pretty old," remarked the young Tomcat.
"I should say," replied the other.
"Why, he claims that once in his youth he actually saw a bootjack."—Philadelphia Press.

THE LIVER QUARANTINE

"TAKING HIS MEALS OUT."

Hurried eating has ruined many a man's stomach. The digestion-destroying process is gradual, often unnoticed at first.
But it is only a short time until the liver balks, the digestive organs give way, and almost countless ills assail the man who endeavors to economize time at the expense of his health.
A torpid liver causes a quarantine of the entire system. It locks in the diseased germs and body poisons and affords them full play, inviting some serious illness.
In families where August Flower is used,
a sluggish liver and constipation are unknown, so are all stomach ailments, as well as indigestion, dyspepsia, heartburn, headaches and kidney and bladder affections. No well-regulated family should be without this standard remedy.
Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.

Swooped Down on Russellville.

Night riders, 100 strong, swooped down on Russellville, Logan county, Friday morning, and after overpowering the three policemen and providing against the giving of an alarm, dynamited and burned the two independent tobacco concerns in the city and several other establishments and rode away out the Hopkinsville and Clarksville pike. Three men were wounded and the telephone girls and police held prisoners for nearly three hours. Over $50,000 worth of property was destroyed.

Born on a Pullman.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Harvey in the Pullman car on the Santa Fe passenger train No. 8 as the train was pulling into Topeka Sunday. The parents of the baby are prosperous residents of Chicago and were en route from San Francisco to that city. They named the baby "Santa Fe."

Will Offered For Probate.

The will of the late John Hamilton, of Millersburg, was offered for probate yesterday before Judge Dundon. Mr. Hamilton requests that all of his property, be converted into cash. That it be placed in the hands of Bourbon county; that the interest on same be applied to the education of the poor young girls of Bourbon county, in the same manner as the Garth Fund is now applied for the education of poor boys. Wm. Myall was named as executor. Judge Stitt was present, representing some heirs of Mr. Hamilton and requested that the will would not be probated until said heirs could be present, which request was granted by Judge Dundon. His estate is estimated to be worth about $40,000.

Attention, Ladies!

Doings at Frankfort.

Both the Democratic and Republican caucus for legislative offices was to be held last night and the Republicans also held a joint caucus to nominate a candidate for United States Senator. It is conceded that Gov. Bradley will have no opposition for the nomination for Senator. W. J. Gooch, of Simpson, was conceded to be the Democratic Speaker selected. All the Republican State officials were sworn in yesterday morning and are now on the pay roll for four years. There was no ceremony about the swearing-in, everything being conducted in a simple, every-day manner.

Astounding Fact.

At the Sunday school meeting at the Methodist church Sunday night, the speaker made the statement that there were five hundred children in the city of Paris that did not attend any Sunday School at all. We cannot contradict this statement, but if this is a fact it looks like some of our good Christian people should get busy.

Young Men's Club.

About seventy-five men were present at the monthly meeting of the Young Men's Club of the Christian church Friday evening. Rev. Hugh McClelland, of Richmond, made a fifteen-minute speech on "Courage." For several meetings past the debate has been an interesting feature of the program. At this meeting Dr. Daugherty and Mr. McClelland argued that "a city girl makes a better wife than a country girl." Messrs. Albert Hinton and Carey E. Morgan championed the cause of the "country girl." The judges rendered their decision in favor of the "country girl." Hon. W. H. McMillan casting the deciding vote. Delightful oyster soup was served.

Mrs. Pinnell's Will.

The will of the late Mrs. Nannie Pinnell was probated in the County Clerk's office yesterday before Judge Dundon. The deceased left all of her property to her daughter, Mrs. Mary Alice Arkle, for life, at her death to go to her heirs.

Looking For Night Riders.

It was reported last night that the people of Little Rock, this county, were notified that "night riders" from Nicholas county would visit that precinct last night and in fact were on the way.

We hardly believe the report for the reason that there is less tobacco out of the pool in the Little Rock neighborhood than in any precinct in the county. However, we will know this morning for sure whether or not old Bourbon was invaded by the "riders."

Mail Subscribers Must Pay in Advance.

The United States Postoffice Department has issued an order, No. 907, dated December 4, 1907, amending the postal regulations, which will hereafter compel newspapers to enforce business principles in their circulation department and probably reduce the press-room waste that has cut some figure in the recent 50 per cent. advance in the price of white paper.

The new order is intended to reduce the volume of second-class mail matter made up of newspapers and magazines, which the government now carries at one cent a pound, entailing a big annual loss to the postoffice department. It practically limits the use of the mails at these cheap postage rates to papers sent to bona-fide subscribers, paid in advance, and publishers will be fined four cents for every pound of mail sent out in violation of the regulations.

In order that the new rule may not be harsh in its application, the postoffice department has provided that a reasonable time shall be allowed to publishers to secure renewals of subscriptions before cutting off subscribers whose time has expired or who are in arrears. This time allowed is fixed at three months for daily papers, one year for weekly papers, and four months for monthly magazines.

Under the operation of this rule publishers will find an amount equal to the transient postage rates, four cents a pound, for every daily newspaper sent to a subscribers over three months in arrears and for every weekly newspaper sent to a subscriber one year in arrears.

Publishers generally will, we believe, be glad that this regulation has been made by the Postoffice Department, as it will effectually settle the question whether mail subscribers should be cut off at the expiration of their subscriptions. In the past it often happened that subscribers who were carried over the time for which they had paid complained because they were not discontinued, while others who were promptly cut off at expiration took offense and felt that this was an imputation on their honesty or ability to pay.

The new regulation establishes for the future a business-like custom that it is fair to publishers and subscribers, and relieves the matter of all embarrassment to either side. There is no doubt that the old custom was abused by publishers and subscribers, by the former in sending papers and bills to people who wished to discontinue and by the latter in accepting and reading papers and then refusing to pay for the ground that the subscription had expired.

In compliance with the new law the News will at once send out bills and renewal notices to all mail subscribers who may be in arrears, and hopes to have prompt responses in order that there may be no violation on our part.

In the past we have never used these columns to urge payment of subscriptions or arrearages, leaving such business details to the circulation department, but we believe the new postal regulations, requiring that all subscribers be cut off if three months in arrears, on penalty of forfeiture of second-class postage privileges, justifies this explanation, which will be run in several issues in order that all our mail subscribers may understand the new order of things.

Increase in New York Babies.

The stork made 125,126 visits in New York City during 1907, according to statistics prepared by the Commissioner of Health. This is an increase of 13,354 over the previous year, when 111,772 births were reported. The new figures give New York a higher birth rate than London and a lead of more than 40 per cent. over Paris.
